Current Ministry

Jeremiah and Sharnay are nationally appointed missionaries with the Assemblies of God U.S. Missions Intercultural Ministries department. They are currently pastoring Fort Yukon Assembly of God Mission, located in Fort Yukon, Alaska, a small Gwich'in Athabascan village located eight miles above the Arctic Circle on the Yukon River. Jeremiah serves as lead pastor and Sharnay serves as children's pastor. They have served in these roles since 2006.

Previous Ministry

Before moving to Fort Yukon, Jeremiah and Sharnay spent three years in full-time ministry and training at Master's Commission North Pole. Along with studies, part of their training involved over 120 days of outreach throughout rural and village Alaska.

Jeremiah has completed three sets of courses through Global University's Berean School of the Bible (ordination level studies). Sharnay has completed two sets (licensed level studies). Alongside these studies, both took additional ministry courses and studies throughout their Master's Commission years.
